

PERMIT TO ENGAGE IN FISHERY OPERATIONS WITHIN THE SOUTHWESTERN ALASKA FISHERIES RESERVATION

Permit No. 1923-46.

Anchorage Packing Company.

Anchorage.

December 20, 1922.

- - - - -

A reservation designated as the Southwestern Alaska Fisheries Reservation having been created by the Executive Order of November 3, 1922, the Anchorage Packing Company, whose home office is at Seattle, Washington, is hereby authorized to operate its plant at Anchorage, within the Cook Inlet district of the said reservation, during the calendar year 1923, for the packing of salmon, crabs, and clams, salmon to be mild cured or canned, under the following conditions:

1. That the company may take clams on any grounds, except between Harriet Point and Tuxedni Harbor, and may operate four (4) salmon traps (two mosquito or dry traps and two standard deep-water traps) as specified in their application for permit dated November 28, 1922. The traps to be driven shall be reported to the Bureau accompanied by map or chart on which the sites are indicated, if such has not already been filed. No gill net permits will be issued to the company, but fish may be purchased of any individuals obtaining permits to fish for salmon.

2. That the pack of all species of salmon shall not exceed fifteen thousand (15,000) cases, computed upon the basis of 48 one-pound cans per case.

3. That the company shall observe the existing laws and regulations for the protection of the fisheries of Alaska and for the administration of the said reservation (copies of which are attached hereto and the conditions of which are made a part of this permit), as well as those that may hereafter be enacted or promulgated for such purposes.

4. That this permit expires December 31, 1923, is not transferable, and is revocable at any time at the pleasure of the Secretary of Commerce.

HERBERT HOOVER

Secretary of Commerce.
